Johnny Rabbitt (Ron Elz) is a St. Louis radio legend, having been broadcasting for decades. He was inducted into the Rock 'N Roll Hall of Fame for his contribution to the radio industry, creating the progressive rock format, and being the first to completely program a radio station by computer. In addition to his legendary radio career, Rabbitt is an avid historian and trivia buff. He has also written two St. Louis trivia books. Many St. Louis restaurants offer "Johnny Rabbitt Specials" which are Rabbitt's favorite meal or dessert.

HISTORIC SAINT LOUIS HOUSE AND GARDEN TOUR

"All gardening is landscape painting."

Saturday, August 15, 2020

10 am to 4 pm

As you visit multiple historic sites, observe how the outdoors complement the inside spaces. Be it a single potted plant, a garden, a farm, or the wider environs, each historic site relates to its surroundings. See how our ancestors connected with the land, in both ornamental and practical ways. Enjoy various summertime activities. Be inspired, and take home your own landscape painting in your mind's eye.
